CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: SOCI 3422
Political Sociology

Department: Department of Sociology, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary’s University.

Schedule: 9:30-12:29pm, Mondays and Wednesdays

Academic Calendar Description:
Students in this course will examine prevalent theories on, and emerging sociological approaches to, political behavior, change, and institutions. Topics will include: voting behaviour, political parties, international relations, lobbying, political culture, political news media, etc.

Qualifications:
The preferred applicant will have experience teaching political sociology. Applicants must possess a PhD (or be ABD) in sociology and must have a strong record of undergraduate teaching in sociology.

Remuneration:
Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary’s University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:
Qualified applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary’s University must submit a cover letter, updated C.V., complete teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness), and a relevant course syllabus. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary’s University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness), and a relevant course syllabus. Applications not conforming to these expectations will be considered incomplete and will not be considered for this position.

The application deadline is March 1, 2019. Please apply via email to Dr. Randle Hart, Chair, Department of Sociology: randle.hart@smu.ca.

Saint Mary’s University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary’s University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.