CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: SOCI 3423
Ethnic Conflict

Department: Department of Sociology, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary’s University.

Schedule: 12:30-3:29pm, Tuesdays and Thursdays

Academic Calendar Description:
Ethnic conflict is a social force that is shaping our lives, society, and world history. We will use sociological theories and research to tackle some of the current debates and controversies related to ethnic conflicts, such as opposition to Canadian multiculturalism, Aboriginal protests in Canada, the rise of Islamophobia, the resurgence of the Far Right in Europe, attitudes towards and prevention of Islamic terrorism, and the impact of globalization on ethnic conflict escalation.

Qualifications:
The preferred applicant will have experience teaching ethnic relations, sociology of race and ethnicity, and/or ethnic conflict. Applicants must possess a PhD (or be ABD) in sociology and must have a strong record of undergraduate teaching in sociology.

Remuneration:
Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary’s University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:
Qualified applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary’s University must submit a cover letter, updated C.V., complete teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness), and a relevant course syllabus. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary’s University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness), and a relevant course syllabus. Applications not conforming to these expectations will be considered incomplete and will not be considered for this position.

The application deadline is March 1, 2019. Please apply via email to Dr. Randle Hart, Chair, Department of Sociology: randle.hart@smu.ca.

Saint Mary’s University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary’s University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.
